

KAIZEN, NSS IIT DELHI

presents

CONVENTION

in association with

TRYST 2017

(25th February, 2017 : 10.30AM - 4.30PM)

About the Convention:

Aim: The convention aims at providing a single platform for exchange of a plethora of ideologies, knowledge and experiences among students, organizations and individuals working towards social welfare in various domains.

Theme: Several people and communities around us have done pioneering work in the upliftment of society. Interacting and learning from these change leaders, in this convention we will together try to come up with ways to make our work impactful and scalable through sustainable use of resources. The three broad domains addressed during Convention will be Education, Environment and Health & Safety.

Participate as Delegates and Rediscover the “Process of Change” through the 4 stage day long Convention at
